(Sacramento, CA; May 1, 2018) On May 3, 2018, The Sacramento Guitar Society is hosting an all-day Guitar-A-Thon at Sunrise Mall as part of a regional event the Big Day Of Giving (BDOG).

The Guitar-A-Thon will occur from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. inside the mall, in front of JC Penney's Court. The event will feature some of the best regional classical guitarists, all of whom are volunteering for the Sacramento Guitar Society.

Participants will include individual solo performances, duo performances, trios and an ensemble of the Sacramento Guitar Society's own Orchestra. This event will highlights the breadth and depth of reach of the Sacramento Guitar Society and its impact on the local community—from some of the region's finest guitarists to students from California State University Sacramento's Music Program; from a group culled from a local senior center, to children who are part of a local Suzuki Guitar group.

"For those who love the guitar, our BDOG Guitar-A-Thon will be a delightful range of guitar music, all performing to benefit Sacramento Guitar Society," noted President of the Society, Lili Sahba Williams, who following a long career in engineering at Intel Corporation has focused her 2nd "re-wirement" in helping the Sacramento Guitar Society gain visibility for its philanthropic work. "There will be seats for shoppers to sit and relax to enjoy the music. Everyone is welcome to attend. The event will be live-streamed on Facebook to encourage visitors and donors. There will be raffle prizes every hour, with the winner selected from the pool of donors of each hour."
