Minutes of Board Mtg 03/28/2022

Attending: James Banach, Jay Reynolds, Cherie Lee, Sandy Strautman

Absent: Andrew Le,

Guests: Dilo Seneviratne, Angela Greben, and Ginger Ekroth

Meeting called to order at 7:32 pm by Jay Reynolds

1. Welcome prospective board members
  - a. Dilo Seneviratne-interested in grant writing. Not a musician at this point, retired, does some volunteer work, done a lot of writing and might be good at grant writing. Michael Silva mentioned openings to her. Jay to pass on email and phone number to Jim for follow-up on grant writing assistance.
2. Social Media Report
  - a. Cherie shared the various platforms she has posted on. Facebook and Instagram seem to be the best platforms for penetration. Others do not seem to be as effective.
3. Concert plan for the season (including email from directors)
  - a. Need to have something for BDOG.
  - b. Orchestra leaders have suggested we do some in-person Spring Concert. Could plan for a live concert and default if necessary. Sandy suggested Carmichael park as a possibility. Davis park in Davis as a possibility.
  - c. Sandy will call Carmichael park and see what is necessary to do it. Will also contact Mary Rose to see if she would be willing to take ensemble on the road for BDOG.
  - d. Would use Clara for performance as a backup in case other doesn't work. Ask for masking.
  - e. Date: needs to be determined. Possibility May 22th, ideal date. Possibility of using BDOG, May 5, as a tune-up for Spring Concert.
4. Volunteer sources
  - a. Sean mentioned a group we could approach for volunteers. A senior group that does volunteer work. Sacramento Volunteer Program.
  - b. Also check at Sac State to see if they have anyone who would like to get some experience with volunteer work.
5. Agreed we will not have any live performances outside of orchestra at this time. Virtual only.

Next meeting scheduled for April 11, 2022 at 7 pm.
